CLUES SOUGHT IN FATAL SHOOTING

Detroit police are looking for clues in the shooting death of a San Jose, Calif., businessman found in a vacant lot on Detroit's west side.

Police identified Ben Goldman, 42, as the director of product marketing for Cisco Systems.

He was found dead in a vacant lot near the 20500 block of Braille on Aug. 19. He had been shot in the neck. His wallet apparently was stolen.

Goldman was attending a conference at the MGM Grand Detroit, where he also was staying, police said. There also is evidence Goldman visited various strip clubs, including the Penthouse Club on 8 Mile.
