MAN CHARGED IN SHOOTING OF 7 TEENS OUTSIDE PARTY

Police have arrested a man whom they say shot seven teenagers, one of them fatally, outside a west-side party last week.

Orlando Robinson, 22, has been charged with first-degree murder, six counts of assault with intent to murder, firearms possession by a felon and felony firearms. He may be arraigned today, police said Wednesday.

According to investigators, Robinson was in one of the two groups that started fighting around 12:30 a.m. Saturday at a rental hall in the 14100 block of Wyoming. He allegedly pulled out a handgun and starting firing.

Edward Jones, 16, was killed and another teen remains in critical condition, police said. The rest of the victims have been released from area hospitals.
