EASTPOINTE -- Police Sunday announced they have arrested a suspect involved in shooting two pizza shop employees last week that left one man dead and another critically wounded.

The suspect , 25-year-old Isaiah Mayweather of Detroit, was arrested by a Chicago Police Fugitive Arrest Team on a train in downtown Chicago. Mayweather, a parolee convicted of felony firearms and other crimes, will be brought back to Michigan to face multiple charges, said Eastpointe Police Detective Lt. Leo Borowsky.

Meanwhile, police are asking the public to help locate the second suspect , 28-year-old Winfred Roger Phillips, a parolee from Detroit who served almost six years in prison for armed robbery before being released in 2005. Police said he is armed and dangerous.

Both men were identified by a store video security camera.

The shootings happened about 10:30 p.m. Thursday when two armed men entered Buscemi's The Original at 22044 Gratiot Ave. and fatally shot a 40-year-old male employee as he swept the shop floor, Borowsky said

Police said the gunmen hopped a counter and seized cash before shooting a 27-year-old man in the back of his neck, Borowsky said.

Those with information should call Eastpointe Police at (586) 445-5100.
