2 charged in killing, burial in backyard

Two men were charged with first-degree murder, kidnapping and mutilation Friday in connection with the shooting, killing and burial of a 58-year-old man whose body was discovered Wednesday in an east-side Detroit backyard.

Robert Lee King, 36, and Marlon Scarber, 25, both of Detroit are charged with killing Fate Washington of River Rouge. They were arraigned Friday.

Agents from a multi-agency police task force dug up Washington's body from under a doghouse in a backyard on Montclair.

The FBI had reported him missing in November.
