Young Boys suspect monitored

DETROIT -- A prosecutor Monday described Sylvester (Seal) Murray as the Young Boys Inc. organizer and supervisor and said he carried a telephone beeper to aid in the ring's heroin business

But the government had Murray's beeper number, assistant U.S. Attorney Robert Morgan said in U.S. District Court, and also had agents continuously monitoring four telephones Murray and his associates used.

Information from those taps led to raids on two apartments in the Jeffersonian, an east side luxury high-rise, where agents found $741,000 and a large quantity of drugs.

The trial of Murray and three other defendants -- Velma Bailes, Delos Fulwylie and Michael Jenkins -- began Monday in U.S. District Court.
