ROMULUS — The driver of a pickup who caused a crash on Interstate 94 that left one person dead on Friday tried to flee before being restrained by passing motorists, police say.

Michigan State Police said the driver was taken to a hospital, along with other passengers in his pickup, and will be arrested upon release.

Ibrahim Kadhum Alkazaihi, 41, of Detroit was pronounced dead at the scene after the eastbound pickup lost control and crossed the median, crashing into three other cars. The occupants of the other two vehicles involved in the crash were treated at the scene and released.

The freeway reopened at 6:30 p.m.

The truck flipped over the northern guardrail and crossed all four westbound lanes before ending up in a ditch. Police say the driver tried to flee, but was restrained by passing motorists until police arrived. Police say they believe alcohol and/or drugs were involved in the accident.

Police are withholding the identity of the truck driver pending criminal charges.
