Detroit police have arrested and charged a man they say may be connected with the shooting death of Barbara Udics, 37, of Detroit and the wounding of her husband Donald Udics, 59.

Assistant Chief Robert Dunlap said Marlo Johnson of Detroit was charged with receiving stolen property, carrying a concealed weapon without a permit, felony possession of a weapon and being a habitual third offender. He was released from prison in February.

Police found Johnson after the shootings Thursday morning, attempting to drive a silver 2007 Chevrolet Impala owned by Donald Udics that was stolen after the shootings.

Dunlap said Johnson is a suspect in the shootings but hasn't been charged with them because "we still have a lot of work to do."
