Cops say they know ID of fatal hit-run driver

Detroit police said Monday that they have identified a man they believe to be responsible for a hit-and-run accident Sunday that killed an 8-year-old boy.

The unidentified man is expected to turn himself in with the help of his lawyer today, police said.

Third-grader Anthony Richardson was hit by a van Sunday while crossing the street on Dubois on the city's east side.

Police said the driver of the van that struck the boy got out and yelled for onlookers to call 911. He then fled.

Police Sgt. Erin Stephens said tips from witnesses who live in the neighborhood led investigators to the suspect.
