Ypsilanti police were searching for a 23-year-old man Saturday evening after he allegedly killed his younger brother for intervening in a fight with his girlfriend.

According to police , around 2:45 a.m., Mario Dennis Williams stabbed Bobby Mims, 19, of Detroit in the chest with a kitchen knife in the 600 block of Timberlane in Ypsilanti.

Williams, who stays in Ypsilanti Township and Detroit, had been arguing with his girlfriend when Mims tried serving as peacekeeper, police said.

"He was trying to keep a situation from escalating to a worse situation," Ypsilanti Police Sgt. Eddie Davis said.

Mims was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, where he was pronounced dead shortly after.

Williams fled the scene on foot, police said. It is believed that he doesn't have any means of transportation.

Police say they suspect he is still in the city or immediately outside it. They consider Williams to be armed and dangerous.

He is described by authorities as African American, 5 feet, 10 inches tall and 200 pounds. An outdated photo released after the crime shows him with braids. He now has short hair.

Anyone with information about his whereabouts is asked to call 734-483-9510, anytime.
