WARREN

Teens charged in 2 carjackings Two Detroit teens face a combined 25 felony charges after Warren police said they confessed to two carjackings in Warren on Wednesday morning that led to simultaneous police chases.

Devin J. Hudson, 17, faces 14 charges, including two counts of assault with intent to murder and two counts of carjacking . Eighteen-year-old Richard S. Harrell-Strong faces charges, including two counts of carjacking , two counts of armed robbery and two counts of conspiracy to commit carjacking .

Both entered not-guilty pleas at their arraignments Thursday before 37th District Court Judge John Chmura. Hudson's bond was set at $3 million and Harrell-Strong's at $ 2 million. The two are being held at the Macomb County Jail.

Warren police said the teens were involved in two carjackings from parking lots about 6 a.m. Wednesday. Police eventually arrested the teens after they were chased by vehicle into Hamtramck. Police are investigating the possible involvement of Hudson and Harrell-Strong in carjackings in Harper Woods, Madison Heights and Detroit.

Both are due back in court May 1 for a preliminary exam.
