Paroled bank robber Ronald G. Dent was charged Saturday with three counts of first-degree murder in the shooting deaths of his girlfriend, their eight-year-old son and her 11-year-old son.

Dent, 32, wore a beige trench coat at his arraignment in 36th District Court. When Judge Helene White ordered that he be held without bond, he exclaimed, "No bond?" White did not answer as Dent was escorted out of the courtroom.

A pre-trial hearing was set for March 23.

DENT IS CHARGED with killing his girlfriend, Renell Glenn, 32, her son, Ronald, and Dent and Glenn's son, Gerald.

The killings were discovered after witnesses called police to report seeing a man holding a gun to the head of a boy as the two sat in a rented car in a driveway next to Tamy's Drive In restaurant at Lyndon and Schaefer.

Police found Gerald Glenn slumped in the front seat of the car next to the restaurant. Dent was arrested as he sat in the restaurant drinking coffee at about 8:15 a.m. Friday.

The boy was taken to Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital where he died about 2 p.m. Two guns were found in the car, police said.

Police, who determined Dent's identity through a fingerprint check, went to his house in the 14800 block of Wisconsin, where officers broke down a door and entered the downstairs flat. They found the body of Renell Glenn, who had been shot in the head. In a bedroom, police found Ronald Glenn, who had also been shot in the head.

OFFICERS SAID Dent had been out all night but returned to the house about 6:30 a.m. Police said he then spent more than an hour firing several shots in the basement and first floor of the house and threatening residents.

Renell Glenn's 17-year-old niece told police Dent threatened her. She left for school only minutes before her aunt and cousin were killed, she said.
