

Second drug ring leader pleads guilty in Detroit

Detroit News, The (MI) - Wednesday, November 21, 2007

Author: The Detroit News ; Paul Egan

DETROIT -- The second of two brothers who headed a nationwide cocaine ring called the Black Mafia Family pleaded guilty today in federal court in Detroit.

Terry Lee Flenory, 37, a Detroit native who was a Los Angeles resident when a federal grand jury indicted him in 2005, pleaded guilty to leading a continuing criminal enterprise.

He could face 30 years in prison when U.S. District Judge Avern Cohn sentences him early next year.

On Monday, Flenory's brother, Demetrius Flenory, 39, a Detroit native who had moved to Atlanta, pleaded guilty before Cohn to the same charge.

Together, the brothers, along with others convicted in the case , are responsible for repaying $270 million in drug profits.

Officials are collecting some of that money by selling off homes, cars, jewelry and other valuables purchased with drug proceeds.

Of 41 people charged in the case , 33 have now pleaded guilty .

Edition: ONLINE

Section: Metro

Page: 00

Company Name: #keywords2#

Index Terms: DETROIT ; DRUG TRAFFIC ; CRIMINALS ; TRIALS

Dateline: DETROIT

Record Number: det31745924

Copyright (c) The Detroit News. All rights reserved. Reproduced with the permission of Gannett Co., Inc. by NewsBank, inc.